Foster has evinced neither ability as an administrator, consistency as a partisan, wisdom as a party leader, honesty as a politician, honor towards other great men of the party, nor fidelity to the people who elected him.—Bucyrus Journal, Rep.

Men: I am a Democrat. Many of you are Republicans. I shall vote for Hancock. You can vote for whom you please. This establishment will not close no matter who is elected.—JOHN W. BOOKWALTER.

Democratic Senatorial Convention.

To the Democracy of the Thirty-Third Senatorial District of Ohio:

You are hereby requested to meet in delegate convention, in the city of Toledo, on Thursday, September 15th, 1881,

at 10:30 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of putting in nomination two candidates for the Ohio Senate, to be voted for at the coming October election.

The apportionment of delegates for the several counties of the District has been fixed at one delegate for each one hundred votes, and one delegate for each fraction of fifty votes and over, cast for Gen. W. S. Hancock for President in 1880, which gives the several counties the following representation.

	Votes.	Delegates.
Fulton.....	1787	18
Hancock.....	3330	34
Henry.....	2871	29
Lucas.....	5985	60
Putnam.....	3417	34
Wood.....	3444	34

By order of
SENATORIAL COMMITTEE.

The honest miners of the Hocking, Mahoning and Tuscarawas Valleys yearn for Charles Foster. He has been such a friend to them. Witness his kind and liberal treatment of their Corning brethren.

The Republican press has abandoned principles, platform, and ticket. They are in the thickest of the fray abusing the Democratic and Temperance candidates. Personal abuse is a splendid argument. It proves conclusively that C. Foster should be continued in power.

THE Chicago Times asked: "Why is it that Charley Foster is always eating clevos and lemon when he enters a temperance camp meeting?"

ANOTHER Republican has come to grief. This time it is J. L. Wartman, Deputy Collector of Customs at Cincinnati. He has defaulted to the tune of $10,000.

THREE doctors have left the President's bedside "by request." Now if they would only fire a few "Colonels" the "rank" atmosphere of the sick-room would be to some extent purified.—Enquirer.

THE Pittsburg Post says Stephen W. Dorsey, of Star route fame, continues Secretary of the Republican National Committee. And that's the way the Republicans punish their thieves and purify the party.

REMEMBER, Democrats, if we succeed in securing the Legislature this fall, the next House of Representatives in Congress will be Democratic. No Democrat should throw anything in the way of this result.

C. FOSTER boasts that he will be elected Governor if he has to buy every doubtful vote in Ohio. Well, even if so, he can't buy the dissatisfied, deceived Republicans, temperance men and the "d-n Methodists."

THE Democrats and Nationals have placed upon their county ticket in Lucas for Treasurer Joel Kelsey, a prominent and popular citizen of Toledo. The ticket throughout is extremely strong and we confidently look for its triumphant election in October.

UNDER Republican rule, the most terrible scandal that ever hovered over our benevolent institutions was exposed in the Home of the poor orphans at Xenia. And yet a doctor who was one of the principal offenders still holds his place.

GOVERNOR FOSTER a few weeks ago passed a high eulogy on Vice-President Arthur. Shortly before Foster made his eulogy on Arthur, Guiteau, a prominent Republican stumper in the last Presidential campaign, shot Garfield that Arthur might become President. Is a vote for Foster a vote to indorse Guiteau's infernal act? Republican, pause and consider.

GOVERNOR FOSTER is boasting of the stump that he had every Democrat turned out of the benevolent institutions of the State. He says he believes that the spoils belong to the victors. The Democrats of Ohio propose to lift our charitable institutions out of politics. Foster glories in the fact that he has been instrumental in dragging them lower than they have ever been before.

WE are pleased to see that the Hon. H. E. O'Hagan, of Erie county, has been honored with a renomination for State Senator in the Thirteenth District. While his district is quite close we still hope for Mr. O'Hagan's re-election, and we know if the district can be carried by any Democrat he is the man to do it, for he has the energy and popularity necessary. Mr. O'Hagan has been a valued member during the past two years, and we hope to see him in the next Legislature exerting his influence for good.

WHEN C. Foster thought President Garfield would die, he got down in the dirt and lavished the most fulsome and sickening flattery on Arthur. He sent for a correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer twice, and told him to be very careful to tell the people how he loved Arthur, and C. Foster says if he is not elected, it will be an endorsement of Guiteau. How would it do to name the proposition?

THE Republican press is very much disturbed over what it is pleased to term a "literary bureau," which they fear is to be run in the exclusive interest of John W. Bookwalter and the Democratic party. For once the Republican press is correct. Every Democratic paper in Ohio is a "literary bureau," and all are enthusiastic and unanimous in favor of Democratic success.

Two years ago the vote on Governor in the State was: Chas. Foster, Republican, 336,261; Thomas Ewing Democrat, 319,132; A. S. Platt, Greenback, 9,129; G. T. Stewart, Prohibition, 4,145; Foster over Ewing, 17,129; Foster over all, 3,855. It will be seen by the foregoing that two years ago Mr. Foster had nothing to brag about in an aggregate vote of about 670,000. The margin may be overcome by good work on the part of the Democracy this year.

ONE of C. Foster's organs refers to the temperance people as "hogs." Mr. Halstead, of the Cincinnati Commercial, also regards them as "swine," and believes they have devils in them. C. Foster's private opinion has not been given to the world, but in public he refers to them as "lunatics."

General Garfield's mother has been a widow for fifty years.—Later item.

THE Inter Ocean labors under a misapprehension. Mrs. Garfield married some years after her husband's death, but the marriage proved an unhappy one, and a separation soon followed. The death of divorced husband occurred some months since in Michigan.—Toledo Journal.

THE Pittsburg Post speaks our sentiments exactly when it says: "The Democratic rank and file are beginning to speak out on the subject of claiming what is justly their own, and are prepared to instruct their representatives as to their convictions on the subject. If a Democrat can be elected President pro tem. of the Senate, why elect him, let the consequences take care of them selves. The party is tired of this unreciprocated courtesy and will have no more of it."

No Democrat has changed his last fall's opinion of Mr. Garfield as a politician, but they sympathize with Mr. Garfield as a man, in the attempt upon his life by a Republican assassin. Their humanity reaches to the man, but not to the party, and they distinguish between the two, too. A party that would endeavor to make political capital out of its attempted assassination of its own leader, is mean enough for anything, and ought not to be trusted by honest men any longer.—Kenton Democrat.

THE Signal is again working upon its vivid imagination, the result being its readers are treated weekly with facts so distorted that they are left without a semblance of truth. The editor of the Northwest cares little for what is said concerning him through the columns of our contemporary, but the dirty insinuation against the Democratic Committee and some of the candidates upon the Democratic ticket are deserving of rebuke, even at the hands of honest Republican voters. Such stuff as fills the columns of the Signal should cement the Democracy more strongly together and have them come up in a solid phalanx in October and support their ticket to a man.

THE Republican press have a new howl now. After their several weeks of silence, they have just discovered that John Wesley Bookwalter is a full blown, ruby-nosed drunkard, who is traveling over the State, making daily debauches, corrupting the honest voters of the State, liberally patronizing gin mills, having a high time generally. If one of all these stories be true, they are a sudden and strange departure from the preceding forty-two years of Mr. Bookwalter's life. It is just possible that another campaign lie is being added to the already long list.

DEMOCRATS, why is it the Republicans are so anxious that you should send one of their number to the Legislature this winter? Is it because a Republican can make better laws than a Democrat, or that a Republican can represent the people of Henry county at Columbus any better than a Democrat? Neither the one or the other, but their chief end is to keep in force the present Congressional jerrymander, which is the offspring of a Republican Legislature, and which cheats the Democratic organization out of at least five Representatives in Congress. This is why the Republicans are so anxious that Tyler should go to Columbus instead of Mr. Hornung. Not because he is more fit, but in order that Democrats may still be deprived of their just dues.

THE editor of the Signal after calling the temperance voters "bigoted numb-skulls" now styles them as "last year's calves." Still this same editor thinks all the temperance votes should be giving to the Republican candidates, notwithstanding this shameful abuse, and he goes so far as to say the temperance people have sold out for a price, etc. The following beautiful morsel is taken from last week's Signal: "While pretending to be in favor of sumptuary laws, they are really in favor of the success of the party that is openly opposed to them. It is well understood that they are Democrats in disguise, and that Bookwalter's Pocket Book is the lever that moves them. Either that, or they have as little sense as a last year's calf."

THE "Irish Citizen." This is the name of a paper published at Cincinnati, which is now opposing Mr. Bookwalter for Governor, simply because he did not pay its editor the sum of $30, the selling price. The Signal is fond of quoting from it and it contains extracts from it every week. Fouke can now lay Elliott alongside of Walter, Burns & Co.

There has been some discussion ever since the nomination of Mr. Bookwalter, as to whether or not the editor of the Irish Citizen had offered to turn the support of the paper to Mr. Bookwalter for a money consideration. A charge was made that he had, and denied by Elliott, with a challenge to any one to produce the document. The original was in the hands of D. C. Ballentine, who a few days ago sent it to Allen O'Myers, of the Democratic Executive Committee. It is given below. Two facts are noticeable—the low price the Citizen people set upon their influence, and the way in which they refer to ex-Governor Bishop as one fully informed about the value of the Citizen for political advertising purposes:

OFFICE OF THE "IRISH CITIZEN,"
CINCINNATI, June 6, 1881.
JOHN W. BOOKWALTER—Dear Sir: I perceive that there is a serious effort being made to have you nominated for Governor, and for the success of the Democratic party I hope it will be done. Of course, if you are nominated, you will receive the earnest support of the Irish Citizen, but I would suggest to inhibit public sympathy prior to the convention and this can only be done through the medium of the press. We were the first to urge the nomination of Gov. Bishop, and I refer you to him as evidence of the great benefit he derived from the course which I am about to propose to you. We will write strong leading articles, weekly, in your behalf, and publish all matter favorable to yourself which shall appear in other papers, and commence with the next issue, with an extra edition of one thousand, which we will send you by express at cost price, viz: thirty dollars ($30), and you can circulate them wherever you think they will do most good, and in the meantime you will receive the benefit of the full edition of the Citizen. If your townsmen, J. H. Thomas, stood up for the cause of the nomination, I could not, on account of his crusade record, have made any such proposition to him, and his ultra temperance reputation is equally unpopular with the Irish and Germans. I again call your attention to my request of a reference to Gov. Bishop, and hoping to hear from you as early as a date as may suit your convenience, I am, yours respectfully,
F. J. ELLIOTT.

John Wesley Bookwalter. Is the friend of the workmen because he never had a strike in his shops; Because he never made a reduction of wages in shops; Because when any of his men are ill or injured, their pay is continued right along; Because during the late hard times he advanced the pay of many of his workmen; Because he accords to his employees the freeman's right to vote as they please; Because he has always treated his employees as men—as fellow-workmen.

At the request of the managers of the Cincinnati Art Exposition, Mr. Bookwalter, the Democratic candidate for Governor of Ohio, has generously agreed to loan his entire art collection to the Exposition for exhibition. It is spoken of as one of the most valuable in the country, being worth some $50,000, and includes works of Merle, Toulmouche and Myer von Bremen, among foreign painters, and Broughton, Densett, Eastman, Johnson and Bridgeman, among Americans.

A Washington correspondent declares that Mrs. Garfield alone has for some time stood between the presidency and Vice-President Arthur. If she had consented, he says, Secretary Blaine would long ago have advised the Vice-President to come to Washington and take on himself the functions of the government.—Plain Dealer.

FIVE thousand solid arguments of 412½ grains each in favor of Charles Foster's re-election to the office of Governor of Ohio, are reported as being ready for use in Lucas county this campaign. Whether they will be employed in "snubbing" the Methodists or subduing the saloonist is not stated. Probably both.—Toledo Saturday American.

THE Republican Executive Committee have issued a circular in which the assassin Guiteau is spoken of as a Democrat, and voters are asked to rebuke the assassin, on of the President by voting against the Democrats. This villainous lie was circulated in the localities where the Republican speakers last year promised the farmers fifty cents for their wool.—Plain Dealer.

HON. THEODORE COOK, of Cincinnati, will be President of the Cincinnati Southern R. R. under the new company which has just assumed control.

THE Whale Ship Viking, just from Bergen's Straits, reports the crew of the Bennett Polar Expedition in splendid health, owing to the ample store of Bill's Cough Syrup, provided by their generous patron. Price 50 cts. and $1.00 per bottle. For sale by Kneeland.

"This is the issue, a Solid North against a solid South."—Charles J. O. Wilcox.

"Treat the boys liberally."—Charles Foster.

FREMONT, September 12.—Democrats of Sandusky county met in convention Saturday. There was great interest manifested in the convention and the Democrats of Sandusky are ready for the fight, determined that Bookwalter shall have two hundred votes more in the county than were polled for Hancock last fall. Following ticket nominated: Representative, Peter Brady, Bellevue; Auditor, Adam Hodes, Fremont; Clerk, B. Meek, Fremont; Sheriff, Charles F. Pohlman, jr., Fremont; Treasurer, D. M. Winters, Fremont; Prosecuting Attorney, George Kinney, Fremont; Commissioner, N. G. Rathbun, Green Creek; Inferior Director, Charles White, Townsend.

A Traveler's Story. After spending months at European and American watering places and thousands of dollars looking for health, I returned home disheartened and wretched. I had consulted the best physicians and traveled far and near without benefit, and expected to die. A friend urged a trial of Parker's Ginger Tonic. Three bottles and careful diet have worked wonders and brought me excellent health and spirits, and you may publish my experience for the benefit of similar sufferers.—A Cincinnati lady. aug31-1m TIFIN, O., September 10.—The best races given in Tiffin for many years were closed at the grounds of the Tiffin Trotting Club to-day. The winners in the different races were: Charles Wheeler, Napoleon, B. Z. Preacher, in the three-minute race; P. Lafland's Bay Billy, first in the green race, and Jim Harrison's Mollie H. in the free for all race. In the running race J. Hahn's Black Betty took first money.

The Surgeon's Knife.

Wonderful Surgical Operation—Removal of Urinary Stones from the Bladder—Successful.

Mr. Simeon Tietzel, of Sangeries, N. Y., had been treated for seven years by various physicians for what they call stricture of the Urethra, without benefit. He finally consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Tondant, N. Y., who found his trouble to be Urinary Calculi or stones in the bladder. The doctor at once removed the foreign bodies with the knife and then gave his great Blood Specific, "Favorite Remedy," to prevent their reformation. The entire treatment was eminently successful, and Mr. Tietzel's recovery was rapid and perfect.

While "Favorite Remedy" is a specific in all Kidney and Bladder diseases, it is equally valuable in cases of Bilious Disorders, Constipation of the Bowels, and all the class of ills apparently inseparable from the constitutions of women. Try it. Your druggist has it and it only costs one dollar a bottle. The lucky man is he who puts this advice in practice. Don't forget the name and address, Dr. David Kennedy, Tondant, N. Y. The doctor would have it understood that, while he is engaged in the introduction of his medicine, "Favorite Remedy," he still continues the practice of his profession, but confines himself exclusively to office practice. He treats all diseases of a chronic character, and performs all the minor and capital operations of surgery. 30p-1m

LEGAL NOTICE.

CONRAD ARRAS, whose place of residence is unknown to the plaintiff herein named will take notice that Mary E. Orwig, of Henry county, Ohio, did, on the 12th day of September, 1881, file her petition in the Court of Common Pleas, within and for the said county of Henry and State of Ohio, against the said Conrad Arras, setting forth that the said Conrad Arras, on the 30th day of December, 1852, received from the Governor of Ohio a deed from the State for the southeast quarter of the southwest quarter of section 25, in township 5, north of range 6, in Henry county, Ohio, containing 40 acres of land; that subsequent to said 30th day of December, 1852, and prior to December 29, 1868, the said Conrad Arras conveyed said land by deed in fee simple to one Hannah Sheng, who lost the same without it having been recorded, said plaintiff now holds title to said land by a regular and connected chain of conveyances from the said Hannah Sheng and her husband, legally executed and recorded, and that she is now in the peaceful possession of the same, that by reason of the want of record and loss of said deed from the defendant to the said Hannah Sheng, there is a lapse in said chain of title which operates as a cloud upon the same, tending to diminish its value, and that she is unable by reason of the unascertained residence of said defendant, to procure his deed to her for said land, and alleging that by reason of said loss of said deed to said land may be quieted and an interest in said land adverse to the plaintiff's title thereto, and praying that upon final hearing of said case her title to said land may be quieted and for other equitable relief, and the defendant is notified to appear and answer said petition on or before the 3d Saturday after the 30th day of October, 1881.
